

urer W. L. O'Connell, charging him with appropriating to his own use $50,000 belonging to county and demanding an accounting.

H. G. Reid, chauffeur, arrested for speeding. Said he was in car track and heard noise in back of him and speeded to get out of way of what he thought was a street car. It was a motor cop. Discharged.

Miss Mary Cummings, 3339 Park av.; W. J. Summers, 6427 S. Green st.; Irene Connerty, 6756 Langley av.; Grace Nulthauf, 6036 Bishop st.; Alta Roberts, 713 S. Harvey av., Oak Park, and John McGinty injured when elevator in Merchants' Loan & Trust bldg., 112 W. Adams st., fell from sixth floor to basement.

No one hurt when elevator fell few feet in Criminal Court bldg.

Unidentified man about 35 found dead in front of 2234 N. 40th ct.

College of Physicians and Surgeons here, one of oldest medical schools in city, yesterday became property of University of Illinois.

Col. N. W. McChesney, leader in affairs of Committee of 100, has notified 3d Ward Republican Club that he would enter race for alderman.

Jas. Cowder, 2022 Park av., railroad man and organizer of railroad men's Roosevelt Club during last campaign, was endorsed as Progressive candidate for alderman of 14th Ward.

Wm. A. Cunnea, contesting State Att'y Hoyne, increased his gain to 289 votes yesterday in the recount being conducted under direction of Judge Baldwin.

Mrs. Lottie Newman, 1823 S. Michigan av., and Irving Landgrass, 1160 Gault ct., arrested in room at Quincy Hotel, 15 Quincy.

Fred Schultz, body guard of Italian merchant, missing. Mystery. Believed work of Black Hand.

Eight more men arrested in Woodlawn as suspects of recent robberies.

— O —
WHICH ONE DO YOU THINK WILSON WILL NAME?
For Secretary of Agriculture.

Prof. L. H. Bailey.

Dr. H. W. Wiley.